

New Book on Making a Difference Generates Waves on the Web

February 24, 2010 – Press Release

Halifax, NS -- Halifax-based author and speaker, Steve Foran, announces the launch of his first book—Myth Number 2. Available exclusively as an e-book, Myth Number 2 is a free download from Steve's website (www.giveraising.com). His writing explores the second of two myths that limit our potential to grow as human beings and dissuade us from making the kind of meaningful contributions we all long to make in the world.

"Myth Number 2 serves as an everyday guide to how you can make a difference in the world through your ordinary actions," says Steve, who speaks throughout North America about gratitude. "I hope that readers will find the book an enjoyable and inspirational read and that many will take up the challenge it offers." He adds, "Don't expect any rocket science, instead a fresh look at some old ideas and some good ole common sense."

Join this growing worldwide movement and watch for Steve's follow-up book later this year. In classic "Star Wars" form, it is titled Myth Number 1.

The free download for Myth Number 2 is available directly at:
